Scripture reading selection for today

Num. 11:31-34

31 And there went forth a wind from the Lord, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place Kibrothhattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

Please Note:

HopeSide is primarily outreach driven and is a training ground for anyone to "pastor" and "pasture". We request your understanding and support when various program elements may not always fall into place from week to week. Your feedback to improve is welcome. Thank you.

His father converted to Christianity from a Hindu background. Pr. Samuel went to an Adventist Boarding school in Kudikadu located in Thanjavoor, in the State of Tamil Nadu, India. His three brothers followed him to the same school and they all then went to Spicer Memorial College. All four brothers have become pastors. Pr. Samuel came to the U.S. in 1998 and studied in Andrews University and completed his M.Div in Theology in 2004. He worked in the Ohio SDA Conference as an ordained Pastor for six years.
