We are glad to have Chris Howell with us this week to present God's word. Chris and his wife, Debbie, live in Clarksville, Maryland. They have two daughters, Jasmine and Camilia. Chris and his wife, Debbie, began their mission service in the Marshall Islands in 1986 where they spent a year as student missionaries on the island of Ebeye. They also served as missionaries in Ethiopia, Africa for four years. Chris graduated from Atlantic Union College and holds a BA in Religion. He owns and operates his own carpet dyeing business, Colorful Carpets. Chris is the youth director for Canvasback Missions, a mission organization based in California that provides medical services for the people in the South Pacific islands of Micronesia. He enjoys playing racquetball, playing the piano, and teaching judo, in which he holds a black belt. Chris has a passion for the islands and the people of Micronesia and considers leading youth teams to the islands as one of life’s greatest joys.

The fourth week of the month is focused on Outreach Matters. Here’s a quote to reflect on this theme: "Evangelism and the local church are inseparable. It's like the Good Samaritan seeking an inn for the one he rescued."~Reinhard Bonnke
