We are glad to have Pr. Samuel Abraham with us again this week to present God's word. He was born in Bangalore city, and one among nine children being the sixth. His father converted to Christianity from a Hindu background. Pr. Samuel went to an Adventist Boarding school in Kudikadu located in Thanjavoor, in the State of Tamil Nadu, India. His three brothers followed him to the same school and they all then went to Spicer Memorial College. All four brothers have become pastors. Pr. Samuel came to the U.S. in 1998 and studied in Andrews University and completed his M.Div in Theology in 2004. He worked in the Ohio SDA Conference as an ordained Pastor for six years. He later became a Chaplain and has been working for the past eight years in this field. It is his passion to share Christ and His word, the Holy Bible, to the world. His wife Jeevana is also from India.

The third week of the month is focused on Faith Matters. Here’s a quote to reflect on this theme: “Faith is not the belief that God will do what you want. It is the belief that God will do what is right.”~ Max Lucado
