

Elder Segaran Sigamoney

Mr. Segaran Sigamoney was born and brought up in Salisbury Park, Pune, India. He graduated from Spicer Memorial College with a major in Economics and then went on to finish his Masters in Commerce from Pune University.

Mr. Sigamoney joined Oriental Watchman Publishing House as an accountant and continued to serve in various capacities like an Internal Auditor, Assistant Treasurer and Treasurer. After coming to the US, he worked as a Program Coordinator at Center for Social Change, which is a DDA facility accredited by CARF International. At present he works as a Clinical Specialist for the same agency.

Church Activities

Elder Sigamoney has been a member of the Salisbury Memorial Church in Pune for the past 46 years. He has served in almost all the departments in the Church. In the AY department for around 20 years and in the Pathfinders for a decade. He was responsible for arranging AY Camps and Pathfinder camps and church outreach activities for the youth. He has worked in all the divisions of the Sabbath School, from Primary to Senior Sabbath School Superintendent. He also worked as the church treasurer, Lay Activities leader, Deacon and Elder.

Community Activities

Salisbury Park had a big community of nearly 1200 people. He was involved in arranging the social activities within the campus so that the youth would not get attracted to the outside world. There was always something going on throughout the year – sports, talent nights, hikes, camp fire, games, community meals, tournaments, cultural programs etc.

Hobbies and interests

Elder Sigamoney is an athlete and a sportsman. He plays soccer, cricket and badminton. He also is a handy man and does all of his home repairs. He also does a lot of gardening and also some cooking when time permits. He started preaching while he was an auditor. This his passion even to this day.
