This week, we are glad to have Pr. Chinniah Nagendla bring God’s word to us via ZOOM. He comes from a humble background from Guntur District, Andhra Pradesh. He is a Spicer College Graduate in Theology and he served the church for nearly 40 years in various capacities as pastor, director and Conference president. He is retired as stewardship director from East Central India Union of SDA. Because of his love for ministry, he along with his wife Mrs. Uma, still continue his services to Healthy Heart India project in ECU, giving health training to pastors’ wives. In his 40 years of service, he brought many souls to the feet of Christ. His desire is to serve the Lord faithfully till the end and receive the crown of life from His Lord Jesus Christ.
